Scouting America Declaration of Religious Principle

Scouting America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing his obligation to God and, therefore, acknowledges the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely non-sectarian in its attitude toward the religious training. Its policy is that the organization or institution with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to his/her religious life. Only persons willing to agree with this declaration of principle and the bylaws of the Scouting America shall be entitled to certificates of leadership.

I agree with this Declaration of Principle ____ Yes ____ No _____
